

Call for Papers 2018 – Current methods and models in acquisition

Cahiers is a peer-reviewed open access online journal published by the Association for French Language Studies, which brings together theoretical and applied linguistic research relating to the French language.

For our 2018 special issue, we invite potential contributors to submit original research articles (in English or French) on current methods and models in French acquisition (both learning and teaching). The editors welcome in particular contributions on quantitative approaches. Articles of no more than 8000 words (including references) should be sent by email to the editors before 31st March 2018. Each submission is subject to double-blind peer-review by the scientific committee. Notification of the outcome of proposals will be given by May 30th 2018. Contributors should ensure that the journal's style guidelines have been followed prior to submission.
