ISBN 9781443844451 · Hardback · 345pp · £49.99 · $74.99

Twenty-three years of joint endeavors and extensive field collecting of the narratives referred to in the present volume have resulted in the availability of a multimedia archive of Philippine epics, ballads and rituals both at the Pardo de Tavera collection of the Rizal Library, Ateneo de Manila University, and online.

This collection of twelve essays is the most recent achievement of ongoing studies of performances by singers of tales and ritualists in contemporary socio-cultural contexts by means of pioneering initiatives in the Digital Humanities, multiple analytical approaches and expert use of our growing technical capacity to safeguard and explore Intangible Heritage.

Nicole Revel, Emeritus Research Director, CNRS, Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle (MNHN), Paris, France and Doctor honoris causa in Humanities, Ateneo de Manila University, is a linguist-anthropologist working on 'literature of the voice', verbal arts, the performing arts and local knowledge about nature with the Palawan.
