

Contesting/Contested Memories: The Holocaust in the Twenty-First Century

Thursday 9th & Friday 10th February 2012

Papers to include:-

Malgorzata Fabiszak (Poznan, Poland), 'Memory and Commemoration in Text and Image'

Lars Fischer (CJCR, Cambridge, UK), 'Socialists Grappling with the Shoah: Early Post-War Responses'

Andre Gingrich (Vienna, Austria), 'Racism, Modernist Theories and 'Applied' Practices: Anthropology in Germany and Austria during the Nazi years (1933-1945)'

David I. Hanauer (Pennsylvania, USA) 'The Discursive Construction of the Stolper Steine Memorial Project: Official, Educational and Familial Meanings'

Dovid Katz (Vilnius, Lithuania), 'The Prague Declaration: Writing the Holocaust out of History'

Joanna B. Michlic (London, UK) – 'The Path of Bringing the Dark to Light: Memory of the Holocaust in Post-communist Europe'

Andreas Musolff, (Norwich, UK) – 'Metaphorization of Holocaust Memory and False Historical Analogy in Antisemitic Discourse'

David Seymour (Lancaster, UK) 'The Visibility of the Holocaust and the Invisibility of Antisemitism'

Tracey Skillington (Cork, Ireland), 'UN Holocaust Commemoration in a Post-Secular Age'

Karin Stoeger (Vienna, Austria), 'Antisemitism in Austrian Media Discourses on the Financial Crisis'

Ruth Wodak (Lancaster, UK), "'That is how it is written in the schoolbooks!": Calculated ambivalence and Holocaust denial in Austria'

Panels will be followed by a Public Event at The Dukes Theatre, Lancaster

Sessions will be held at Lancaster University

The conference is FREE to attend

Please register by contacting Oliver Wilkinson by 9 January 2012

o.wilkinson@lancaster.ac.uk

LANCASTER
UNIVERSITY

Dynamics of Memories Research Group

(Click to link to website)

