

The University of Georgia
Department of Language and Literacy Education

LECTURER
SECOND/FOREIGN/HERITAGE LANGUAGE EDUCATION
Beginning Fall 2011

The Department of Language and Literacy Education at the University of Georgia seeks a lecturer specializing in second/foreign/heritage language education in K-12 school settings. The position begins in August 2011.

Qualifications:

A doctorate in foreign language education, TESOL, bilingual education, applied linguistics, or related field by July 2011 is required. Potential for obtaining external funding is desirable. Candidates must have K-12 experience, interest in school-community partnerships, and demonstrated proficiency in a language other than English. Strong candidates will have expertise in one or more of the following areas: assessment; teaching methods in early second/foreign/heritage language education; instructing linguistically and culturally diverse learners; curriculum development.

Responsibilities:

Duties include coordinating a certification program, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses, advising graduate students, collaborating in the development of innovative coordinated ESL/FL certification program.

Information about the department is available at: www.coe.uga.edu/lle . Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications.

Procedure:

Applicants should submit a letter of application including a statement of professional goals, a curriculum vitae, transcripts, teaching evaluations, a sample of scholarly writing, and at least three letters of references to the address below. Applications for this position, which is contingent on funding, received by November 8, 2010 are assured of full consideration.

Dr. Linda Harklau, Chair, Search Committee
Department of Language and Literacy Education
125 Aderhold Hall
University of Georgia
Athens, GA 30602
telephone: 706-542-4526, Fax: 706-542-4509

The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution