

Journal of Multicultural Discourses

Editor: Shi-xu
Zhejiang University, China

INVITATION
TO SUBMIT

Journal of Multicultural Discourses

Journal of Multicultural Discourses is a premier international journal in discourse and communication studies which aims to enhance cultural diversity, equality and prosperity in social life as well as in scholarship. A forerunner in the cultural politics of language, communication and discourse research, the journal has published numerous articles on social, cultural, political, regional and international issues from Asian, African, Latin American, Western and other (multi-) cultural perspectives.

Be the first to know when the next issue of Journal of Multicultural Discourses is available for you to read online by signing up for table of contents alerts:
<http://bit.ly/jmd-alert>

Invitation
to submit

To advance its multicultural-intellectual project and to answer to the challenges of the contemporary times, the journal welcomes papers especially, though not exclusively, on the following subject matters:

- Discourse of local issues of global or human significance
- Discourses of (under-)development
- Discourses of cultural contest, coexistence, cooperation or change
- Intercultural dialogue and critique on discourse and communication studies
- Culturally innovative approaches to discourse and communication studies

Submit your papers online via ScholarOne Manuscripts™:

<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/mm-jmd>

Full instructions for authors can be found at www.tandfonline.com/rmmd