

AERA - Bilingual Education Research SIG 2018 Early Career Award

CALL FOR AWARD NOMINATIONS

DEADLINE: 01/15/2018

The AERA Bilingual Education Research SIG is pleased to offer the 2018 Early Career Award. This award recognizes an individual in the early stages of their career, no later than 10 years after receipt of the doctoral degree. The awardee's research must focus on the role of bilingualism in education including but not limited to bilingual education policy and/or practice.

Any AERA member is eligible to send a nomination to the AERA Bilingual Education Research SIG Early Career Award chair. Self nominations are not accepted for this award.

The nomination must include:

- * A nomination letter that explains the nominee's early career record of research and service focused on bilingualism in education;
- * The nominee's most recent curriculum vitae;
- * Two representative scholarly publications written by the nominee; and
- * Two additional letters of support from individuals familiar with the nominee's work and qualified to speak to the quality of their scholarship and service to the field.

Nominations will be evaluated on the following criteria: academic appointment (fewer than 10 years since receipt of doctoral degree), scholarship recognized for excellence in advancing the understanding of the role of bilingualism in education, and service to the field.

The awardee will be recognized during the 2018 annual meeting in New York City. They will receive a plaque from the Bilingual Education Research SIG and a cash award of $500.00.

Please send inquiries and nominations to the Bilingual Education SIG Early Career Award chair, Dr. Nelson Flores at nflores@upenn.edu no later than January 15, 2018.