

Critical Inquiry in Language Studies (CILS) Journal

In conversation with CILS

Please join us in dialogue with the editors of CILS to support new and established scholars in publishing with the journal. Editorial board member Professor Ryuko Kubota (University of British Columbia, Canada) will discuss the contributions of the journal to the broad field of critical applied linguistics. Following the talk, the Co-Editors will discuss the aims and scope of the journal as well as tips and suggestions for potential contributors.

Dr. Kubota is a Professor in the Department of Language and Literacy Education at University of British Columbia, where she teaches applied linguistics and teacher education. Her research focuses on critical approaches to language education, focusing on race, gender, culture, and language ideologies.

International Date & Time:

February 18, 2021 (Thursday):

4:30 pm PST;

7:30 pm EST

February 19, 2021 (Friday):

8:30 am HKT;

11:30 am AEDT

Zoom Link:

<https://eduhk.zoom.us/j/95613950895?pwd=VHplcWhGUlE0cjhNUTMwSGk2aGNZUT09>

Meeting ID: 956 1395 0895

Passcode: 386033

YouTube Livestream:

<https://youtu.be/X9VeuGy4TY4>

Editors

Dr. Saskia Van Viegen is Assistant Professor in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics at York University, Toronto, Canada. She specializes in bi/multilingualism in education, TESOL and language assessment.

Dr. Benjamin "Benji" Chang is Assistant Professor of Equity Education in the School of Education, and International & Global Studies, at the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. His work focuses on teacher education, community engagement, and language, literacy and culture with minoritized communities.

Dr. GU Mingyue Michelle is Associate Professor in Department of English Language Education, Education University of Hong Kong. She specializes in internationalization in higher education, language policy and planning, family language policy, multilingualism and mobility, discourse theory and analysis.

Dr. Sunny Man Chu Lau is Associate Professor in the School of Education at Bishop's University, Quebec, Canada. She specializes in bi/plurilingual education, critical literacy, and second language teacher education.