

NATIVE LANGUAGE & TECHNOLOGY WORKSHOPS

In the Native Language and Technology Workshops you will learn how to use technology tools to create professional quality print and audiovisual materials in your language. The workshops are held twice a month at ILI's state of the art Technology Learning Center in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Mobile Workshops are also available upon request in any community. Seating is limited, you may register online at www.ilinative.org.

Publisher Print Workshop

In this workshop you will learn to create story-books, business cards, brochures, newsletters, flashcards, and other print materials in your native language with Languagegeek keyboards and easy to use templates. Narrate your story-book in our studio and learn to transfer your story to a CD, iPod or mp3 player.

Digital Storytelling Workshop

Learn how to use the audio program Audacity to record and edit your narrations and song. Enhance your photos with G.I.M.P. and create a short video expressing your creativity and language with Windows Movie Maker. Share your unique stories and experiences while learning to use advanced techniques in story creation.
