INTERNATIONAL LITERACY CONFERENCE

The Centre for the Study of Literacies @ Sheffield is pleased to announce its 6th Annual Conference at The University of Sheffield, 27th - 28th June 2014.

We are interested in papers that make sense of everyday literacies and communicative practices linking to questions connected with space, place and culture. We are hoping to attract papers that explore new methodologies and cross-disciplinary approaches that are about understanding the uses of literacy in all its forms. We value critical and emancipatory research, as well as participatory approaches.

We welcome papers from established and new scholars from the fields of literacy and language in all their forms.
