

CALL FOR PAPERS

INTERNATIONAL ELT CONFERENCE

NEW TRENDS IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHING, LEARNING AND EDUCATION

Procida (Italy)
September 26-27, 2022

The International Conference on New Trends in English Language Teaching, Learning and Education, 26-27 September 2022, held at the UniOR Summer School of Procida (Italy), is the first of a series of yearly conferences which will constitute a leading forum for the presentation of new advances, trends and approaches in EFL theory and practice in the post-pandemic era. During the past few years, the global educational system was shaken by unprecedented difficult social and health conditions which compelled educators, at all levels, to adapt their teaching methods. This led to new technological challenges as the use of existing online platforms became more widespread, or new tools were inevitably introduced in the EFL world. Many of these pedagogical changes have proven particularly effective in the foreign language classroom. The Conference is a University of Naples L'Orientale event organised to provide an international platform for ELT educators and practitioners to share their innovative educational and teaching experiences with global experts.

All abstract submissions will be peer-reviewed and evaluated based on originality, technical and/or research depth, accuracy and relevance to the conference themes and topics.

Here is a list of themes and topics of the Conference Call for Papers, but not limited to:

- technology integration
- alternative ways of teaching in higher education learning environments
- multilingualism and varieties of the English language
- innovations in education raising/furthering technological literacy
- educational games as a learning approach
- e-learning initiatives and the use of digital content
- adaptation to & use of new technologies for hybrid classroom environments
- social networks, smartphones & mobile apps in the education of English
- online classrooms & e-management of the learning process
- simulation & animation in ELT
- blended learning & advanced classroom technologies
- online/virtual labs for the development of learning skills
- online assessment: e-tests & the changing landscape of assessing language skills
- e-tutoring & virtual learning management systems
- social & digital media
- educational multimedia, animation & 3D applications
- corpus linguistics and language teaching
