

A new book from the Coquille Indian Tribe

Changing Landscapes 2002 “Sustaining Traditions”

*Eight Native authors from Oregon tribes.
Twelve articles on Native American heritage in western Oregon, including traditional literature and arts, cultural identity, and historical ecology.*

Ordering Information

Name/Institution _____

Mailing Address _____

Email, phone # _____

Quantity Ordered _____ Total _____
($25.00 per copy, including shipping charges)

Please send check or money order to: Coquille Indian Tribe
Changing Landscapes
P.O. Box 783
North Bend, Oregon 97459

For more information contact Donald Ivy, (541) 756-0904

Changing Landscapes

“Sustaining Traditions”

Proceedings of the 5th and 6th Annual Coquille Cultural Preservation Conference.
edited by Donald B. Ivy and R.Scott Byram

INTRODUCTION TO THE VOLUME

Donald B. Ivy
Coquille Indian Tribe Cultural Resource Program Coordinator
and Coquille Tribal member

COQUILLE

Elizabeth Woody
Poet, Essayist, and Ecotrust Special Advisor;
member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs

COYOTE AND THE STRAWBERRIES: CULTURAL DRAMA AND

CULTURAL COLLABORATION

George B. Wasson, Ph.D.
Anthropologist and former Tribal Council member, Coquille Indian Tribe
and J. Barre Toelken, Ph.D.
Professor of English and Folklore, Utah State University

CULTURAL LEGACY: TRADITIONAL ATHABASKAN LEGENDS OF SOUTHWEST OREGON

Patty Whereat, M.A.
Linguist, storyteller, and member of the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians

SURVIVAL OF A POTLATCH TRADITION: COQUILLE GIVEAWAY IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Jason Younker, Ph.C.
Anthropologist, Coquille Tribal member, and Coquille Economic Development Council board member

NATIVE EXPERIENCE AND PERSPECTIVES FROM CORRESPONDENCE IN THE SWORP ARCHIVE

David G. Lewis, M.A.
Anthropologist and member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde

SOME NOTES ON REPLICATING INDIAN TOOLS

David Brainard
Traditional tools specialist and Tribal Council member for the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw

ELAKHA: SEA OTTERS, NATIVE PEOPLE, AND EUROPEAN COLONIZATION IN THE NORTH PACIFIC

David R. Hatch
Civil engineer, co-founder of the Elakha Alliance, and Tribal Council member for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians

AN ABBREVIATED TIMELINE OF THE GEOLOGY AND HISTORY SUPPORTING THE INTERDEPENDENCE OF SEA OTTERS, KELP FORESTS, AND PEOPLE

Marguerite Forest, Ph.D.
Professor of Geography, University of Wisconsin, Racine Falls and Donald B. Ivy

RESOURCE TRADITIONS

Roberta L. Hall, Ph.D.
Professor of Anthropology, Oregon State University

SCOQUEL, COQUELLE, AND COQUILLE

R. Scott Byram, Ph.D.
Consulting Archaeologist to the Coquille Indian Tribe

THE CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY OF THE COOS AND COQUILLE

Mark A. Tveskov, Ph.D.
Asst. Professor of Anthropology, Southern Oregon University

THE ALSEYA VALLEY PRAIRIE COMPLEX, CA. 1850:

NATIVE LANDSCAPES IN WESTERN GLO SURVEYS
Bob Zybach, Ph.C.,
Historical Ecology and Forestry Researcher, Oregon State University