

2ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE Native American Language Revitalization

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Featured Speakers:

Phil Cash Cash
American Indian Language
Development Institute

Stephen Greymorning
University of Montana

Ofelia Zepeda
University of Arizona

Thursday, May 15
12:00 NOON – 9:00 PM

Friday, May 16
9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

LaSells Stewart Center,
OSU Campus

541-737-3935
oregonstate.edu/dept/foreign_lang/

SPONSORED BY:
SPIRIT MOUNTAIN COMMUNITY FUND
OSU Departments of Anthropology,
Ethnic Studies, and Foreign Languages
• Spring Creek Project • OSU Indian
Education Office • OSU Center For the Humanities

Speaking to the seventh generation.

Recognizing the value of preserving Native American languages for future generations, this conference responds to the threat of linguistic extinction for Native American languages. The program includes panel discussions and workshops on topics such as native language teaching strategies, teacher certification, archiving and the application of technology to language preservation.

Sapsiqwathlama
Hesamkanga
Soy'oodanGa

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Open minds. Open doors.™

What's up on campus? Find out at oregonstate.edu/opendoors