AWARDS: 11 scholarship awards - $10,000 total award

The $10,000 scholarship awards will be equally disbursed over the scholarship award recipient's course of study. For example, if a recipient is in their junior year of study, the award will be disbursed over the four remaining semesters in the amount of $2,500 per semester. If the award recipient is in their final year of study, the full award of $10,000 will be disbursed.

Notification of scholarship awards are made in September and fall disbursements are made no later than November 1. Spring disbursement of the award will be given out dependent upon maintenance of a 3.5 or higher grade point average (GPA) and official verification of a full-time course load.

AISES Google Scholarship award recipients will be invited to attend the Google Scholars Retreat at Google headquarters the spring following their selection as a scholar. Google will provide scholars with information regarding Google internships and notify students of Google student program opportunities.
