

Join us for the American Indian Language
Development Institute's

30th Anniversary Celebration & Symposium

June 29th through July 2, 2009
The University of Arizona
Tucson, Arizona

Join us to celebrate and honor 30 years of Indigenous language education by the American Indian Language Development Institute. We will have presenters from the U.S., Mexico, and beyond discussing Indigenous language documentation, preservation, revitalization, technology, policy, activism, youth, oratory, grant writing, literature, and more. Join us also for our evening events, including a dinner reception and silent auction, poetry readings, and film screenings. It is sure to be an informative and enjoyable week!
