

Call for Papers

Dear Researchers

JELLE, ISSN: 2663-3485 is a quarterly blind peer reviewed journal that aims to provide the publications of research articles in various fields related to English Language, Literature and Education. The journal receives and publishes peer reviewed manuscripts according to the SOPs of Higher Education Commission Pakistan. It invites contributions in the study areas related to English language, literature and English Language Teaching (ELT) from you, your fellow researchers and scholars worldwide for the promotion of Research Culture in Pakistan. The journal seeks to publish original research, action research, review articles and reviews of new books. The interested professionals with doctoral degrees in the relevant fields are invited to become a part of JELLE review team. They will be awarded with acknowledgment letters and certificates subsequently as reviewers.
