

“Working Together In Preserving Endangered Languages”

2-day knowledge-sharing event with language revitalization specialists

Thursday, May 21st

9:30am - 10:30pm Registration
Opening Remarks

10:30am - 12:00pm Presentations
12:00pm - 1:00pm Lunch Break

1:00pm - 3:30pm Presentations
4:00pm - 5:00pm Keynote Speaker

Friday, May 22nd

10:00am - 12:00pm Workshop ~
Dr. Akira Yamamoto and
Dr. Kimiko Yamamoto

11:30am - 2:30pm Salmon Bake

UISHE: United Indian Students of Higher Education

Native American Student and Community Center, PSU

(corner of SW Broadway and Jackson Street 503-725-9695)

Drs. Akira and Kimiko Yamamoto, professors emeriti, University of Kansas, both teach and work closely with language and professional communities to advance language and culture revitalization programs.

Featured Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Akira Yamamoto

~~~

“Place for all languages, language vitality and revitalization”

Dr. Akira has been active with the American Indian Language Development, the Linguistic Society of America’s Committee on Endangered Languages, the UNESCO Ad Hoc Expert Group on Endangered Languages, the Indigenous Language Institute, and the Oklahoma Native Language Association.

Sponsored in cooperation with :

American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES)
the Native American Studies Program and the Department of Applied Linguistics at Portland State University

For more information, please email correspondence to: endangered\_languages@pdx.edu