

Department of Spanish and Portuguese
School of Languages, Literatures and Cultures
University of Maryland, College Park

Master's Degree in Hispanic Applied Linguistics

We provide rigorous training in advanced linguistic and sociocultural skills in Spanish through a solid foundation in Spanish Applied Linguistics, courses in Spanish, Latin American, and US Latina/o literatures and cultures, and options such as internships, community service learning, and technologically-rich environments.

A graduate program intended for those...

- Looking for advanced training in language related areas.
- Providing linguistic and cultural services to Spanish-speaking communities.
- Working with Spanish-speaking clients.
- Considering a PhD degree in the future.

Coursework and assessment

Non-Thesis Option (30 credits):

- 12 credit hours in Hispanic applied linguistics.
- 9 credit hours in Latin American/Spanish/Latina(o) literatures.
- 6 credit hours in elective courses.
- 3 credit hours in a final project.
- Comprehensive exams.
(Thesis Option also available)

Admissions

- Minimum of four (4) courses at the advanced undergraduate level in either Spanish and/or Latin American literature, Hispanic linguistics, or a combination.
- An academic writing sample in Spanish.
- Statement of Purpose.
- Three letters of recommendation.
- Official transcripts.

For more information contact...

- Dr. Manel Lacorte → mlacorte@umd.edu
- Dr. Roberta Lavine → rlavine@umd.edu

Department of Spanish and Portuguese:

<http://www.spanish.umd.edu>

Founded in 1856, the University of Maryland, College Park, is a vibrant multicultural, intellectual community just outside Washington, D.C., a Research I Public University, and the flagship institution of the University System of Maryland.

