

UNIVERSITY OF
CALGARY
EDUCATION

MULTIDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES IN LANGUAGE POLICY & PLANNING CONFERENCE 2012

This international conference will be held at the University of Calgary in Alberta, Canada. We invite papers that approach language policy from a variety of theoretical and methodological perspectives, and in a variety of contexts, from the local/institutional to national/global. We invite abstracts (500 words maximum) for papers in any of the following areas:

Language policy and political theory
Language policy and lingua franca
Language policy and globalization
Language policies in school settings
Language policy and the economics of the workplace Language attrition, language revitalization and language policies

Official language policies
Heritage language policies
Ideologies and language policies
National identities and language policies
Non-official languages in mainstream classrooms
Language policies and social mobility
Language policies and transnational communities

PLENARY SPEAKERS

François Grin, University of Geneva

Elana Shohamy, Tel Aviv University

Peter Ives, University of Winnipeg

SEPTEMBER 6 - 8, 2012
UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

Call for Papers:

For information about the conference, including how to submit an abstract, please visit www.educ.ucalgary.ca/lpp.
The deadline for receipt of abstracts is June 1, 2012. Final decisions will be sent to authors by June 15, 2012.

Thomas Ricento and Mary O'Brien

Conference Organizers

Inquiries should be sent to lpp@ucalgary.ca

www.educ.ucalgary.ca/lpp