

International Workshop : Diachronic Morphosyntax in South American Languages
Institut des Sciences de l'Homme, Lyon, 28-30 May 2015
Version: 24 March, 2015

Thursday, 28 May

- 8:45 Spike Gildea & Antoine Guillaume: Introduction
- 9:00 Kristine STENZEL, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro
From noise-making to non-visual evidence: Genesis of an evidential category
- 9:45 Thiago Costa CHACON, Universidade de Brasília & Lev MICHAEL, University of California, Berkeley
The evolution of subject-verb indexing strategies in the Tukanoan family
- 10:30-11:00 Coffee Break
- 11:00 Martine BRUIL, University of California, Berkeley
The development of portmanteau morphology in Ecuadorian Siona: a story of the formal merger of linguistic categories
- 11:45 Jorge Emílio ROSÉS LABRADA, University of North Ontario
The Piaroa Subject Marking System and its Diachrony
- 12:30-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00 Lev MICHAEL, University of California, Berkeley
*Proto-Arawak ma-: From privative derivation to standard negation
- 14:45 Tammy STARK, University of California, Berkeley
Cyclic grammaticalization in the person marking systems of the Caribbean Northern Arawak languages
- 15:30-16:00 Coffee Break
- 16:00 Willem F.H. ADELAAR, Leiden University Center for Linguistics
A diachronic perspective of verbal personal reference marking in the Quechuan languages
- 16:45 Simeon FLOYD & Elisabeth NORCLIFFE, Max-Planck Institute, Nijmegen
The locative origins of core constituent marking in the Barbacoan languages

Friday, 29 May

- 9:00 Antoine GUILLAUME, DDL
Reconstructing the morphology of the pronominal systems of Takanan languages
- 9:45 Daniel VALLE, University of Texas, Austin
The development of switch reference suffixes in Panoan languages
- 10:30-11:00 Coffee Break
- 11:00 Sabine REITER, Universität zu Kiel
Ideophones and related phenomena in Tupian languages
- 11:45 Ana Vilacy GALUCIO & Antonia Fernanda NOGUEIRA, Museu Paraense Emílio Goeldi
A diachronic incursion into verb argument marking, morphosyntactic alignment and other treasures of the Tupari languages (Tupian family)
- 12:30-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00 Françoise ROSE, DDL
Reconstructing two functionally-related Tupi-Guarani ta- clauses
- 14:45 Dmitry V. GERASIMOV, Institute for Linguistic Studies, St Petersburg, Russia
Double negation, negative concord and evidence for Jespersen cycles in Tupí-Guaraní languages
- 15:30-16:00 Coffee Break
- 16:00 Wolf DIETRICH, Universität Münster
Continuity and grammatical change in Tupi-Guarani negation marking
- 16:45 Joshua BIRCHALL, Museu Paraense Emílio Goeldi, Belém, Brasil
Reported speech constructions as the grammatical source for divergent tense and aspect systems across the Chapacuran family
- 19:30 Workshop Dinner

Saturday, 30 May

- 9:00 Cristian JUÁREZ & Albert ALVAREZ, Universidad de Sonora (México)
The antipassive/causative syncretism and its origin in Mocovi (Guaycuruan)

- 9:45 Pier Marco BERTINETTO & Luca CIUCCI, Scuola Normale Superiore, Pisa
Towards the reconstruction of proto-zamuco nominal suffixation

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

- 11:00 Flávia de CASTRO ALVES, Universidade de Brasília
The grammar of auxiliary constructions in Canela: description and reconstruction

- 11:45 Sérgio MEIRA, Museu Paraense Emílio Goeldi, Belém, Brasil
Elaboration of TAM suffixes by addition of particles in Parukotoan (Cariban)

12:30-14:00 Lunch

- 14:00 Natalia CÁCERES, DDL
The Ye'kwana ergative imperfective: a case of reanalysis

- 14:45 Racquel-Maria SAPIEN, University of Oklahoma
An innovative imperfective in Kari'nya (Cariban, Suriname)

15:30-16:00 Coffee Break

- 16:00 Spike GILDEA, University of Oregon and Collégium de Lyon
Historical Change in Person-Marking: The Nominative/Accusative/Absolutive/Ergative prefixes in Northern Cariban

16:45 Discussion