

Language, Logic and Cognition Center (LLCC)

Are you interested in

- ▶ an interdisciplinary approach to the study of natural language?
- ▶ intensive interaction with world-class researchers from linguistics, philosophy, brain sciences, computer science, and psychology?
- ▶ being a part of an active graduate community of students from a variety of scientific fields?
- ▶ studying in an exciting city at the crossroads of cultures?

If you answered these questions with a yes, you should apply to LLCC's graduate program!

LLCC provides a uniquely interactive graduate program, in coordination with the university's departments of linguistics, philosophy, computer science, cognitive science, psychology, and brain sciences (ELSC). Together with your LLCC advisors and your department of choice, you will be able to pursue studies that are tailored to your research interests.

In LLCC, you will be a member of a vibrant community and have the opportunity to participate in a multitude of activities, including mini-courses offered by top international researchers. Full-time fellowships are available.

Applications should be submitted by May 1st, 2016
