

The History & Reconstruction of Japanese Accent

Cercle de Linguistique de l'INALCO

Paris, 3–4 September 2009

Centre de Recherches Linguistiques
sur l'Asie Orientale

	Thursday, September 3	Friday, September 4
9h30–9h45	Arrival of participants
9h45–10h	Opening remarks
10h–11h	Zendō UWANO On the reconstruction of Japanese accents	Akiko MATSUMORI Categorized vocabulary for the Ryukyuan accentual research and the future topics for the diachronic studies of Japanese accent
11h–11h15	Coffee pause	Coffee pause
11h15–12h15	Robert S. RAMSEY Internal reconstruction & the Kyoto accent system	Wayne LAWRENCE Another reconstruction of the proto-Northern Ryukyuan tone system
12h15–14h30	Lunch	Lunch
14h30–15h30	Elisabeth DE BOER What the historical development of Japanese tone looks like when the Middle Japanese tones are reversed	Yuka HAYASHI & al. The tone system of Ikema Ryukyuan
15h30–15h45	Coffee pause	Coffee pause
15h45–16h30	Tatsuya HIRAKO The accent of rûshēng in Sino-Japanese	Thomas PELLARD Once again on long vowels & register in proto-Japonic
16h30–17h30	General discussion	General discussion & concluding remarks
20h	Dinner	Dinner
