Positions at MDWg for 2017/18

MDWg runs a vibrant language revitalisation program for the Miriwoong language in the East Kimberley region (Western Australia/NT) and can provide a hands-on experience for linguistics students and graduates interested in language revitalisation and documentation. Currently, applications for the following positions are open:

- Project Linguist position (part-time): beginning no later than January 2018; fixed-term to 30 June 2018
- Standard Internships: 10 weeks, beginning in October 2017, January 2018, or March/April 2018
- Special Internship: 6-12 months, beginning any time

Please contact us for more detailed information about any of these opportunities. Our team is looking forward for expressions of interest.

We would also be grateful if you could forward this announcement within your networks.

Thanks and best regards,

Knut J. Olawsky
