

A CALL FOR PAPERS:

3RD ANNUAL OKLAHOMA WORKSHOP ON

Native American Languages

APRIL 17-18, 2010

Northeastern State University | Tahlequah, OK

Join NSU's Center for Tribal Studies for the 3rd annual Oklahoma Workshop on Native American Languages. OWNAL (April 17-18, 2010) focuses on indigenous languages of the Americas and takes place at the end of the 38th Annual Symposium on the American Indian and Powwow (April 15-17, 2010). Dr. Colleen Fitzgerald will deliver the keynote address. Dr. Fitzgerald is a former president of the Linguistic Association of the Southwest and the current chair of the Linguistics and TESOL Department at the University of Texas-Arlington.

SYMPOSIUM HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- ✦ Language revitalization workshop led by Dr. Akira Yamamoto and the Language Documentation and Revitalization Team
- ✦ Cherokee speaker's forum conducted entirely in Cherokee
- ✦ Presentations by students from Northeastern's Cherokee language program, the only Bachelor's degree in a Native American language in the continental United States.
