

Conference

Creating Bimodal Bilingual Good Practice in Schools in Europe. Results of the project De-Sign Bilingual.

At the conference, the survey on bimodal bilingual education in schools in Europe will be presented. Examples of European sign-bilingual Good Practice will be described and bilingual teaching concepts and materials will be made accessible.

If you are a teacher, policy maker or researcher in the field of sign bilingual education then this conference is for you.

September 16, 2016 University of Vienna/Austria

from 8.00	Participant registration
9.00	The project De-Sign Bilingual.
9.30	Sign-bilingual school education in Europe – Results of the Europe-wide survey.
11.00	Coffee break
11.30	Good Practice in sign bilingual education – Results of the qualitative research.
12.30	Lunch break
14.00	Tools and materials for sign bilingual practice – Teach-DeSign-Bilingual.
14.30	Tour Teach-DeSign-Bilingual – Stations presenting the newly developed tools and materials. (Coffee break)
16.30	Linguistic education in schools for the Deaf – Results of the school survey in Austria, Switzerland, Slovakia and Germany.
18.00	Closing

Official conference languages: German, ÖGS, DGS, DSGS, International Sign and English.

Conference fee, including materials and coffee breaks: € 35,- per person.

Registration:
www.univie.ac.at/designbilingual/registration
Participant number is limited, please register early!

Venue:
University of Vienna
Faculty of Computer Science
Währingerstr. 29
1090 Vienna, Austria

Registration is – depending on availability – possible until June 1, 2016 the latest.
Should you have to cancel, your registration fee will only be returned before May 10, 2016.

Accessibility:

Rooms are fully accessible for users of wheelchairs. The conference hall is equipped with an audio induction loop system. The entire conference will be accompanied by interpreters (see „official conference languages“, above).

www.univie.ac.at/designbilingual